The Black/African American Cultural Center assists students who identify as or with the Black/African American culture with their transition to Colorado State University and throughout their collegiate experience and beyond. About NYU. Connecting talented and ambitious people in the world's greatest cities, our mission is to be a top quality institution. The culture of Trinidad is defined by the ethnic and religious diversity of the country. After the discovery of Trinidad by Christopher Columbus in 1498, the first Spanish settlement amongst the indigenous Carib and Arawak indians did not take place until 1592. Catholics were the first religious group in the country when the Roman Catholic Church was officially established in 1593. Support, advise and inspire New Zealand organisations to be better-by-diversity. Diversity creates a more productive, creative and dynamic society and improves our ability to see and connect with the world around us.
