Cross-Country Cyclist Lured Back to Explore Dubois. April 24, 2019. The article in the website eastidahonews.com is titled "Man Biking Across America Makes a Stop in Idaho Falls," but the real story (in his Facebook post, copied at the bottom of the article) is all about Dubois. The Facebook post tells how, after passing through Dubois, he just had to return for a longer visit. The word "Hills" in the phrase "Black Hills" is a major misnomer. From atop Harney Peak, that point is abundantly clear. At an elevation of 7,242 feet, Harney Peak, the highest point in the supposed "Hills," is about 2,400 feet higher than any "mountain" in the Alleghenies and about 550 feet higher than any "mountain" in the Appalachians. In fact, if you were traveling east ...M1/CT1 Jul. 7, 17 : Allegany State Park, Access 3, 8.6 mi in, park administration has put caution flagging tape on Coon Run Bridge. The bridge is still open but its condition is "tipsy" when walked on, so proceed with caution.
