This Teacher Read a Gay Fairy Tale to Third Graders—Then Resigned Under Pressure Omar Currie, an openly gay teacher, wanted to drive a conversation about bullying and inclusion at a rural North Carolina school. The Teacher that Changed My Life. The teacher who changed my life was Virginia 'Ginny' LaBrant, a high school teacher in St. Petersburg, Florida. When I met her, I was a senior in college and needed a linguistics' course to complete my major. The course was not being offered either semester. To accommodate my need, ... The experience led me to focus my teaching career on kids with learning and attention issues. After a few years, I left classroom teaching to work one-on-one with students. I started my own practice as an educational specialist and supported students with dyslexia and attention issues, among other challenges.
