Prompt 7: Write a letter to a local animal shelter requesting information about their volunteer program. Prompt 8: Describe a bird, an insect, or animal that you have strong feelings about. Choose one that scares, amuses, or puzzles you. Be sure you know enough about the animal to describe it fully. So, sit for a spell, use your brain, and put those animal instincts off to the side while you write these things :). Free Creative Writing Prompts: Animals. 1. Talk about a time in which it really felt like you were using your animal instincts. This could be a time where you really felt your body and emotions took over. Thirty-Nine Fun 3rd Grade Writing Prompts. Use these third grade writing prompts to help maturing students unpack their thoughts each day. Journaling helps children make sense of their sometimes confusing emotions, and it also helps them develop an appreciation for the arts and the power of language. The KWL animal Defenses and Adaptations organizer helped them focus on just 3 things: habitat, predators, defenses. They then used the information to write the essay about the animal. Here is a sample of a completed research organizer .
